

HELP FIND APOLONIJA'S BELOVED CAT, PEPPER.

Apolonija is a famous figure in Gornja Radgona. Long ago people thought she was a witch because she was able to cure people and animals with special herbal mixtures and potions she made. Although this was never proven, she has lived a very long time, so perhaps there is something magical about her after all?

Funnily, even though she isn't an actual witch, she has a black cat. He is called Pepper and has got himself into a spot of trouble.

A new neighbour has moved into the farm next door to Apolonija and Pepper. She is very nice but has a ginger cat, Marmalade, who is a bad boy cat. He's always teasing Pepper and daring him to do naughty things. Yesterday Marmalade cornered Pepper in Apolonija's cellar, it's here she dries all her herbs and makes medicines.

He dared Pepper to break some of the bottles, which, being a good cat, Pepper refused to do. He dared him to do something else naughty. But, still Pepper wouldn't do it. In the end Marmalade was so frustrated that he grabbed Pepper's tail and pushed it near the fire, saying if Pepper didn't drink the potion cooling by the fire he would stick his tail in the fire.

He really is a very nasty cat, that Marmalade!

So, Pepper drank the potion but it has sent him mad, Apolonija was making it for a very special purpose, not for cats at all! He shot off into the town, seeing all sorts of crazy hallucinations on his way, and is hiding because he is frightened. He's hiding from Marmalade and from the crazy things he's seeing.

Apolonija, upon seeing the empty potion bottle in her cellar, is worried sick about poor Pepper and is busy making an antidote to counteract the effects of what Pepper has drank.

Luckily, like Apolonija, Pepper also has some very special abilities and has managed to draw a map with clues as to where he is hiding.

Apolonija needs your help to solve the clues and find her beloved pet.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Read the story out, from the opposite page to find out what your challenge in Gornja Radgona is today.
2. Go to the shaped marker spot on the map. You can do this in any order and can stop for a break whenever you like.
3. Read the text in the same shape around the map and solve the challenge presented.
4. Find the answer on the potion table and cross it off.
5. Keep exploring until you have completed all the challenges and have only one potion bottle left.
6. The last potion bottle remaining will give the answer to the mission.
7. See the back page for lots more fun and information, also find out how to submit your answer.

8. At the "Never More" Memorial count the number of pears (where you wouldn't expect to find some) and go to that number head in the row close by. From this man down towards the museum find a mustached man. He has an engraving of something very unusual on his clothing.

6. What is missing from the picture will lead you to cross off another potion. Good job, Pepper will soon be with Apolonija again.

2. Find an arrow with numbers on the white stone. The number under IV is the number of child size steps to take towards the Tourist Information Centre to find more information. What bird can you see here on this picture? It features on a potion bottle, that you can cross off.

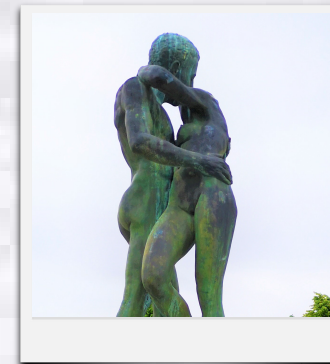

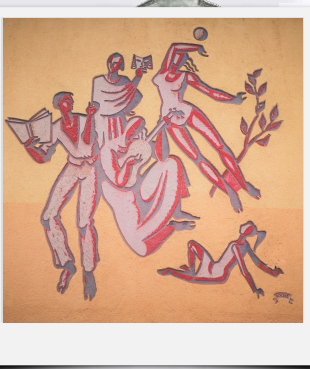

4. Take the riverside path and look for all the unusual things that have been made. Hunt for a bird that sits on top of circles. The first part of what is in these circles can be found on a potion bottle and can be crossed off. Don't miss the trees with eyes and faces just before this spot.

3. A name on a red heart-shaped padlock will lead you to a potion with this name on it. Pepper can not be found hiding in this coded location, cross it off!

7. At the entrance side to the museum count how many windows there are. Remember that number and head to the church. A bell here has a number in its name and should be added to the number you've remembered!

1. At the TIC the colour behind the lady's name on the wall matches the colour of a potion bottle. Well done, you're getting closer to finding Pepper!

5. Find what is in the picture below. The same name appears twice but with different years. The difference between these two years appears on a potion to discount.
